

BONGARÁ

In November 2006, GyM STRACON J.V. was engaged by Compañía Minera Corianta S.A. to provide construction services for the development of an open cut zinc mine situated in Amazonas, Peru.

Works successfully undertaken by GyM STRACON included the mine access road, mine haul roads, development of dumps and construction of fixed infrastructure including workshops, offices, camps, and warehouses.