

CERRO CORONA

In September 2006 STRACON was engaged by Gold Fields' Peruvian subsidiary, Gold Fields La Cima S.A., to provide earthworks and maintenance services at the Cerro Corona Copper Gold Project which is currently under construction and located near Cajamarca, Peru.

Cerro Corona is expected to produce 4.5Moz of gold equivalent over its 15 year mine life, with production commencing during 2008.